3359-11-07 Sixty plus program.

(A) The university of Akron sixty plus program has been designed to allow persons over sixty years of age to attend university courses on a non-credit (audit) basis without having to pay tuition, general service fees, or other fees not charged to all students taking the same class under conditions described below:

(1) To qualify for the sixty plus program, the prospective student must be sixty years of age or older and have resided in the state of Ohio for at least one year.

(2) Sixty plus students are permitted to enroll in a class on a space available basis. Sixty plus students will be allowed in classes only after degree seeking students have registered.

(3) Sixty plus students are listed as audit students. Audit students do not generate state subsidy, therefore, audit students should not be considered in making courses reach minimum size.

(4) Students sixty years or older who choose to take classes for credit must pay full tuition and fees.

(5) A sixty plus student must either satisfy prerequisite class requirements or obtain the instructor's permission.

(6) Sixty plus students' admittance into a course is subject to the instructor's approval.

(7) A sixty plus student may register for no more than three courses (eleven or fewer
